

DEAR NEIGHBOR,

Our Castro Valley homes are becoming increasingly multifunctional, supporting us as we work, relax, learn, and play. As our lives expand, though, we often need more space, nicer amenities, or a more convenient location. While this is an exciting time, there's a lot of money on the line. For most of us, our homes are the largest asset we'll ever own—so you are right to want to understand this asset if you're considering selling. Here are the top things you need to know:

Demand has pulled back some, however the market remains strong.

Last month we saw the typical October numbers go up and down in critical areas showing us the market has maintained stability. Last month, Castro Valley averaged just 0.6 months of available homes. This means that without new listings, all available homes would sell in two weeks! This has caused homes to sell fast and still with multiple offers, however we have seen a decrease in the number of offers being received. The median sale price has increased after two months in a row of decreases to $1,384,509 in October up from $1,305,402 in September. Homeowners may be ready to maximize their equity. However, even in a market like ours, it takes careful preparation and a proven strategy to capitalize on current trends.

We continue to see homes sell with multiple offers.

Correctly priced, well-marketed homes are selling at or above list price, in few days on market.

In fact, homes typically sold in just 17 days in October. That's down 1 day from September and showing us that in this market homes are still selling relatively fast. The speed is a result of a consistently strong demand for homes in our area. Competition among buyers is also having positive effects on the sale-to-list price ratio, which continues to be strong at 108.18% in October. This number has increased after two months decline. These stats really add up when you are selling your largest financial asset. Based on these numbers, we can see that well-prepared homeowners are routinely still getting tens of thousands over the asking price!

Buyers are searching now; competition has eased some however still remains strong.

In working with buyers in the market place many are disappointed as when you have 2-4 other buyers wanting one property there are disappointed buyers as you would imagine. Demand in the market has eased a little as we were seeing more offers and this maybe seasonal however now would be a good time for buyers to buy a property and this is actually a great time to list your home. Currently low interest rates are still bringing buyers into the market, and current inventory is still low. I will keep an eye on rates as inflation tends to push them up which would affect the market.

But what does this all mean for you?

MARKET STATISTICS

Real Estate Market Report
November/December 2021

SINGLE-FAMILY HOME STATS	OCT 2021	SEP 2021	SEP VS. OCT	ANALYSIS
Median Sale Price	$1,384,509	$1,305,402	↑ 6.06%	The median sales price increased 6.06% in October to $1,384,509. We still are experiencing much buyer demand and lower inventory with multiple offers on most properties correctly priced and strategically marketed.
Days on Market	17	18	↓ 5.56%	The days on the market decrease by 1 day still showing consistency.
Sale-to-List Price Ratio	108.18%	106.88%	↓ 1.3%	Correctly priced, strategically marketed homes are consistently selling above list price. This month's ratio is up 1.3% to 108.18% of sales price. To capitalize on this continued growth, I help my clients invest in strategic updates before listing their home for sale.
Average Months of Supply	.6	.7	↓ .1%	With so few homes on the market, it's much easier for new listings to peak buyer's interest. The key is to hit the market with a comprehensive marketing strategy.
Total Homes sold	41	39	↑ 5.13%	The number of homes sold has increased to 41 which is a small increase after a 25% decrease last month. This could be normal for this time of year. It still is a great time to sell and buy up if that is what you're planning in our current market.

LOOKING AHEAD

Here's what we are keeping an eye on in the coming months:

HOME VALUES ARE ON THE RISE AGAIN

Demand for Castro Valley homes remains strong. With our excellent school system, downtown improvements, parks, trails, the BART transit system, and our strong sense of community, buyers continue hunting for homes in our area. As a homeowner, strategic marketing and positioning are the best ways to maximize your equity when it's time for a change.

INVENTORY REMAINS LOW

There are only so many properties available in Castro Valley in the first place and, while there are more homes listed than one year ago, inventory is still low. A low number of homes on the market combined with a strong pool of buyers means healthy competition. The market has eased some and is a good time for buyers who missed out through the year. Homes that are priced correctly and marketed strategically often sell quickly, with multiple offers.

WHAT TO EXPECT WHEN SELLING YOUR HOME

With your hard-earned equity on the line, you deserve expert guidance and first-rate service from the very beginning. With the help of a professional with years of industry experience and a world-class marketing package, you can rest assured that you and your home are well-represented at every turn.
